PART II

NARRATIVE SUMMARY

During the month of October the Battery continued to improve its position area rebuilding ammunition bunkers, personnel bunkers, fighting holes, and the FDC bunker. Particular emphasis was placed on building of new bunkers on the perimeter. Six bunkers were torn down and completely rebuilt along with new 81mm mortar pit and ammunition bunkers. Also the fighting holes on the perimeter were greatly improved.

The following ammunition was expended during the month of October:

1st FAG	Army	Total

b. Intelligence. The Battery occupies "E" Tower of the PHU BAI perimeter OP System and aids in counter rocket/mortar target acquisition. Also the PHU BAI Base Defense has been providing a night observation device in the tower as part of the defense system and target acquisition. Other intelligence target acquisition data is obtained from S-2 1st FAG.

c. Organization and Operations. The Battery continues to have the mission of reinforcing XXIV Corps Artillery, U. S. Army.

d. Training. During the period 1-31 October the Battery scheduled and held nine hours of formal classes on general military subjects. Average attendance at these classes was 80%. A more formal method of training in general military subjects has been initiated with results proving satisfactory. In addition to these classes each section in the Battery held ten hours of section training.

e. Logistics, Equipment, and Supply. At the end of the reporting period six guns were operational. The Battery continues to experience trouble with broken sight mounts. Reasons for sight mount breakage remains unexplainable. Several guns have also experienced trouble with their nitrogen systems. Other areas of logistics remain satisfactory.

f. Civic Action/Civil Affairs. The Battery initiated no civic action or civil affairs programs during the month of October. No MedCaps were performed.
